Stockholm, March 6, O. S.

ON the 4th Inſtant, the Diet being aſſembled in their ſeveral Chambers, the Nobles ſent a Meſſage to the other States, to communicate to them the three following Articles. 1. That the Nobles were of Opinion the Crown and Scepter and the other Regalia, which the Queen had kept in her Hands till now, ſhould be removed into the Treaſury of the Kingdom. 2. That the Nobles thought it very neceſſary a Deputation ſhould be formed out of the Secret Committee, to conſider of what is neceſſary for the Defence of the Kingdom. 3. The Nobles deſired the Opinion of the other States as to the arreſting a Member of the Diet, during the Diet's being aſſembled. The ſame Day, the three ſuperiour Orders of the States confirmed the Form of Government, as it now ſtands, in all its Points. The Peaſants have proteſted in general againſt the Proceedings of the Diet, unleſs they be admitted to a Part in the Secret Committee: The Nobility have been deliberating upon that Point, but are not yet come to any Reſolution.

Turin, March 24, N. S. Madame Royale having been for ſome Days confined to her Bed by Indiſpoſition, began on the 20th Inſtant to ſit up in her Chamber; but ſhe is ſtill very weak, and ſo much decayed, that there is but little Hope of her Recovery. On the 21ſt the Magiſtrates of the City and the Nobility of the Court, waited on their Majeſties and the Prince, to make their Compliments of Condoleance on the Death of the Princeſs, ſince which their Majeſties and the Prince appear daily in publick at Court.

Paris, March 31, N. S. Count Rotembourg is named one of the moſt Chriſtian King's Plenipotentiaries for the Congreſs at Cambray, in the Room of Count Morville lately made Secretary of State. The King continues his Reſidence at Verſailles, whither the Duke of Orleans and the Duke de Chartres went from hence the 1ſt Inſtant. The Cardinal du Bois firſt Miniſter, has been indiſpoſed, but is now pretty well recovered. A Promotion of Knights of the Holy Ghoſt will be made in a few Days, the King having ordered a Chapter of that Order to be ſummoned.

Madrid, March 22, N. S. By Letters from Cadiz and Malaga we have an Account, that large Stores of Proviſions and Ammunition are providing there, for the Service of a conſiderable Body of Troops which is to be tranſported to Ceuta, in order to diſlodge the Mooriſh Army which has lately been reinforced before that Place, and to demoliſh all the Intrenchments and other Works which they have made for carrying on that Siege. The Importation of French Linnens into this Kingdom, being ſtill prohibited, the Flota which is intended to be diſpatched about the End of April for New-Spain, will be obliged to take in the Linnens that come from Holland and Hambourg, which are therefore already much riſen in Price.

Whitehall, March 29, 1723.

Whereas a Letter ſigned L. H. and dated Thurſday Even at Ten, has been received by one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State: This is in His Majeſty's Name to aſſure the Perſon, who wrote it, of His Pardon, provided he comes to the ſaid Secretary of State, and makes the Diſcovery mentioned in the ſaid Letter. He is likewiſe hereby aſſured that his ſaid Letter will be kept.
